

Turbo charge your camera

0 to 150 Flashes
In under 10 seconds

Six out of ten new cameras come from the manufacturer with a Panasonic RapidFlash™ battery. The experts know the difference seconds can make when it comes to getting the picture. RapidFlash has the speed, power and longevity to drive the very best camera technology.

With Panasonic RapidFlash batteries you always get the shot because RapidFlash is ready to flash in an instant. No more fumbling and waiting for the flash to recover. RapidFlash lithium batteries are technologically advanced to recover faster and last up to 50% longer which means you get the best shot every time.
